AGED MAN HUNTING FUNGUS GROWTH IS STRUCK BY FALLING TREE TODAY AT CORNWELLS HTS.; RUSHED TO HOSPITAL

Joseph Cordona, Phila., Pinned Beneath Branch—Woodsmen State They Did Not See Man—Unaware of Accident Until They Hear Moans—Firemen and Rescue Squad Summoned

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Nov. 7.—Failing to hear the cry of "Timber," an aged Philadelphia man searching for a fungus growth here this morning, was struck by a falling tree, and pinned beneath one of the branches.

The injured: Joseph Cordona, 902 Reed street, Philadelphia. Cordona, who was able to pronounce his name, but not to spell it for officials, was rushed to Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, in the ambulance of Bucks County Rescue Squad, where preparations were immediately made to take X-ray pictures to determine extent of the injuries. Hospital authorities were of the opinion that the man had sustained some broken bones.

It was at 8:30 that the accident happened. According to the two woodsmen, Leo Oudet, N. Y., and Samuel Conklin, Allendale, N. J., they had been cutting trees for several days on the plot adjoining Bowman Road, the property being owned by the R. J. Christopher Corporation, Allendale, N. J. They were cutting the timber that had been purchased by the Christopher Corporation. The two state they were felling their second tree of the morning at about 8:30, and as the cross-cut saw finally penetrated, they called out "Timber." It was not until they approached the fallen tree to cut the trunk in two and heard moans that they knew anyone was in the vicinity. Then, they state, they saw Cordona under a limb, the limb measuring a few inches in diameter.

Conklin hurried to the home of John MacAlevey, on Bowman Road, for aid. Mr. MacAlevey, who is a nearby telephone to summon members of Cornwells Fire Company, and also the Bucks County Rescue Squad.

The two workmen, however, were able to loosen Cordona by the time the firemen and Rescue Squad ambulance arrived. Partly crushed was Cordona's heavy basket, in which was his lunch, and in which he planned to place the fungus growth which he delighted in cooking. In answer to questions as to whether he had not heard the call of "Timber," he kept answering "I was hunting for mushrooms."

Eighth Elephant Dies

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—Death toll from the arsenic poisoning of the elephant herd of Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus reached eight today. One of the four elephants which were too ill to continue the trip when the circus left Atlanta following last night's performance, died early today. Seven others died previously.

Russia Renews Attacks

Kuibyshev, U. S. S. R., Nov. 7.—Russian forces defending Moscow renewed their virtually incessant counter-attacks along the "stabilized" front today, and military authorities said the Germans have been forced to dig in and prepare for a long campaign.

A Vichy radio cast said civilians have been evacuated from Sevastopol, the great Russian naval base on the Crimean coast, which the Germans claim already is under heavy bombardment.

At the same time the Russians claimed heavy losses had been inflicted on the German air force in the past two days. An official statement said no less than 90 German planes were destroyed on Wednesday and Thursday.

To the south, however, it was admitted that enemy forces still were advancing in the Crimea and the Donetz industrial basin, menacing Sevastopol and Voroshilovgrad.

Expect Finland To Quit

London, Nov. 7.—Persistent reports that Finland will soon cease hostilities against the Soviet Union flowed into London today but were generally doubted.

(Note: Well-informed sources in Stockholm said that these reports represented a "misinterpretation." The British report to the effect that the Germans and Finns have launched a "big new offensive against the White Sea coast.")

A British announcer said: "It was officially denied in Helsinki this morning that Finland had any intention of stopping operations."

Meanwhile, Reuters agency in a dispatch from Helsinki quoted the Finnish newspaper Hufvudstads Bladet as publishing this comment on Secretary of State Hull's warning to Finland to cease hostilities or lose American friendship: "We place great value on the friendship of the United States. But if it must be purchased by surrendering our future security, then with sorrow in our hearts we must renounce the privilege of this valuable and esteemed friendship."

REACH SETTLEMENT IN DAMAGE SUIT

Judge Calvin S. Boyer Approves Award of $100 to Kintnersville Youth

FILE DIVORCE ACTION

DOYLESTOWN, Nov. 7.—A suit involving a settlement of $100 for a 12-year-old boy has been filed in the Court of Common Pleas here.

Judge Calvin S. Boyer, following a compromise and settlement in an action in trespass, has approved the payment of the sum of $100 to Edward A. Burke, 12, of Kintnersville, son of Edward J. and Marie H. Burke.

The compromise and settlement was made following an action in trespass in which Carl Huber was named the defendant. Huber was driving a car, near Kintnersville, April 3, when the minor plaintiff is alleged to have run into the path of the car and was injured.

His parents were given the sum of $377.75 in connection with the damage claim.

BRISTOLIANS ATTEND RED CROSS LUNCHEON

2400 Rally in Phila. in Preparation For The 1942 Enrollment

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

The Red Cross roll call workers' rally luncheon was held in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia, yesterday when 2400 workers gathered as a preliminary to the annual canvass of the American Red Cross. After the invocation by the Rev. James Ramsey Swain, D. D., pastor of Woodland Presbyterian Church, the audience was greeted by Charles W. Crist, chapter manager, who presented the branch and ward Red Cross banners, given by Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Potter for having gained the greatest increase in members during the last roll call. Mr. Crist was followed by the Honorable Bernard Samuel, mayor of Philadelphia, who stated that with such a group of workers, the roll call should be a tremendous success "if we earnestly keep at it until we achieve the goal set before us."

Blackwell-Newhall, assistant to the chairman of the Southeastern Chapter, spoke of the activities of the chapter, and his happiness in the work he is doing there. Quoting Mrs. Potter, who for 24 years has continued her magnificent work for Red Cross, he said, "If you want to keep young, keep working for Red Cross!"

The audience was interested in seeing and hearing two principals of the "Student Prince" company now playing in Philadelphia: Miss Barbara Fresson, of Texas, who was amazed at the great number of people assembled under one roof, interested in carrying out the annual work of gathering funds that the program of Red Cross may be carried forward; and Mr. Caille, who expressed his appreciation of what Red Cross is doing.

What the juniors of Philadelphia are doing for the well-being of the children of Britain was told by Miss Lila La Furio, Junior Red Cross representative from South Philadelphia, high school. She told of the thousands of friendship bags, for the children of Britain, of the study of first aid and the sewing of garments which the juniors are contributing as their part of the work of Red Cross.

Colonel Cassius M. Lowell, U. S. A., post commander, Fort Dix, N. J., expressed gratitude for the service the Red Cross is giving the army under his command—30,000 soldiers, helped, advised and cheered by the Red Cross. An address was given by James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations, convincing speaker. He visualized the work accomplished, "On the Road to Mandelay", the Burma Road, Egypt, Alaska, the Ozarks, or here—Kansas—with all her stand storms, and the attending hardships offers a challenge to the rest of the U. S. when she decides to enroll twice the number of members. The slogan of Kansas is, "See all the People, See all the People" which arose because a speaker at a Red Cross meeting, found, when attempting his speech that all he could say was "See all the People." The relationship to the multitude in every realm of religion, art and great movements, has a ritual significance. The work of Red Cross has grown and grown until three continents across two oceans present a bond of experience. Racial difference fade into insignificance to coalesce into Red Cross—which heals the hurt, and satisfies the hungry. Red Cross is representative of Democracy saving human life, ringing the liberty bell to the stricken people around the world!

Benjamin Rush, Jr., recalled the fact that this would be the 25th annual roll call of Red Cross when "definitely we have more serious work to do and a far more important part to play! Resolute thinking must be turned into significant action! Our membership must be doubled and we must give of ourselves as never before, and we must all feel the surge of obligation."

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Cornelius Brannan, Ph. D., Diocesan Inspector of Catholic Charities, gave the benediction.

The 1941 Red Cross motion picture, "Marching with Old Glory" was shown. Those purchasing tickets from the Bristol roll call workers of Red Cross were: Mrs. William Calver, Mr. Thomas G. Hawkes, Miss Margaret R. Grundy, Mrs. Edwin Hey, Mrs. Frank

UNDERSTANDING OF WORD 'CHARITY' WELL EXPRESSED BY GUILD

Bristol Branch of Needlework Guild Gathers 2,932 Garments

MRS. WILCOX SPEAKS

Aldan Woman Tells How Much New Items of Clothing Mean To The Needy

"Your donations to the Needlework Guild show that you well understand the word 'charity'—universal love!"

This was the expression of Mrs. Wilfred Wilcox, honorary president of the Aldan Branch of the Needlework Guild as she glanced about the room of the community building, Dorrance street, yesterday, where Bristol Branch members had arranged the 2,932 garments which represented the 1941 ingathering.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Paul V. Forster, president of Bristol Guild, following a short session in which reports were given.

"A member of the Needlework Guild of America! What an honor!" exclaimed the speaker, who characterized it as "an organization that helps other charities as well as individuals, with no distinction of color or creed." She considered to an extent the requirements of membership in this national organization, "only loving thought for the less fortunate, expressed in two new garments."

Mrs. Wilcox, in enlarging upon the merits of the guild, and telling the residents of this area how much good is derived by the needy from the garments given each year, reminded how one person had likened the Guild to a tree, with the trunk representing the organization, the branches, the members and directors; and the garments being represented by the thousands and thousands of leaves. "It is a wonderful tree of love rooted in the deep soil of understanding and help for the needy," Mrs. Wilcox told that through the small donations of individuals last year the national guild had collected 2,024,736 items, all new.

In considering the fine points of the Guild the speaker stressed: Giving, collecting, enthusiasm, juniors, extension, cradle-work activity, etc., telling how the love of the work "grows" on one; and reminding how other charities depend on the gifts of the Guild. Under "giving" the guest told that this includes time, thought, interest and money—"Giving is the most selfish of pleasures. Therefore let us be selfish."

In conclusion the speaker reminded of the honor that Guild women have of serving under three flags—"the Christian flag which stands for purity and love; the American flag which stands for patriotism and love; and the Needlework Guild banner which stands for charity and love."

Listed on the honor roll this year were the following, the number of garments collected being listed: Sewing Department of the Guild, 329; Mrs. Griffith L. Williams, 244; Mrs. Clifford L. Anderson, 222; Mrs. Henry E. Ancker, 124; Mrs. James Lefferts, 167; Miss Jennie Chambers, 107; Patricia Claire Kring, 105; "Billy" Gratz, 105; Mrs. Frederick Kring, 104.

Mention was made of the 84 garments on the Memorial table, an increase from 1941; of the table well filled by Edgely workers; and recognition was also given to the large donation of the members of the Hebrew Ladies' Aid Society. The garments displayed will be given to individuals, and distributed also through the Red Cross and institutions.

In her welcome Mrs. Forster expressed pleasure over the fact that the Guild's honorary president, Mrs. Anderson, was present. Minutes of the last ingathering meeting and of the last annual meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Harry Pope. The records showed that last year's total of garments was 3782, and although this year's total is much less, the president mentioned that many are at present aiding the needy through the Red Cross. Mrs. Griffith L. Williams gave the treasurer's report.

The annual business meeting for directors was announced for December 10th at a tea room at Scudders Falls, N. J. A nominating committee appointed by Mrs. Forster included: Miss Frances Landreth, Mrs. Samuel Roberts, and Miss Mary J. Haines.

Past president, Mrs. Henry E. Ancker, was also called upon for remarks. Mrs. Ancker, most enthusiastic in interest for the Guild, stated that "If we let the Needlework Guild down in any way, it will be hard to get back. We won't let it down. If we have a goal and aim for it, we can make it. Let's increase the number of our garments."

In addition to dresses, sweaters, underwear, for all ages, there were displayed household linens and many blankets; also hand-made crib covers, baby garments numbered in the hundreds, including dresses, bonnets and sacques, bibs, socks, diapers, etc.

The hospitality committee, under the direction of Mrs. Archibald Morris, served home-made cake and coffee.

Mrs. Charles Bassett, Pond street, spent Saturday and Sunday in West Chester, visiting Mrs. Florence Parker.

MEAT FOR BRITAIN

That England needs fats and proteins is strongly indicated by the United States government's gigantic pork purchasing program which surpasses activity in pork since World War days.

Between March and October 1 agents of the Federal government purchased 220,000,000 pounds of lard and 317,000,000 pounds of canned, cured and frozen pork. Meat is exported to England in preserved form to avoid the waste space which use of refrigeration ships entails.

The average American consumes 14.7 pounds of lard and 72.5 pounds of pork annually. Thus the government has bought for the British enough lard to supply 15,000,000 Americans a year and enough pork to supply more than 4,000,000 Americans. Figures on consumption by the average Britisher are not available here.

While lard now exceeds meat in demand under the lend-lease program, government orders for meat are being steadily stepped up. Cattle slaughter passed 1,000,000 head in September for the first time since 1936. The British are short on proteins, a dietary element to which they have long been accustomed. They want more meat in increase worker and fighter efficiency. And they are looking to America to make up their deficiency.

DECLINE OF POSTAL CARD

A letter writer to a New York newspaper regrets the decline in the social standing of the postal card, once popularly used for non-confidential correspondence of all kinds. Going through a collection of family correspondence dated between 1885 and 1906, he was struck by the general use of postal cards in that period.

But today hardly anybody uses a postal card for any purpose. This is strange, too, in view of the higher postage rate for letters. A postal card which would frequently serve the same purpose as a letter costs only one cent, against a cost of four or five cents for a letter written on expensive stationery.

"What fool invented the notion that postal cards are discourteous?" asks the letter writer. There he puts a finger on the real reason for the decline in the use of this economical means of sending a brief message. When people today infrequently receive a postal card their subconscious reaction is that the sender is miserly or that he did not attach much importance to his message.

This seems like a silly attitude, and perhaps one of the things the nation needs is a campaign to restore the postal card to its former social standing. It is a habit of thrift that could be encouraged with beneficial results to all. But it is a movement that the Post Office Department could hardly be expected to launch.

The national debt limit, now $65,000,000,000 will have to be raised considerably, according to Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau. Perhaps the sky will be set as the new limit.

Japan is again planning to "wind up" the China affair, according to Tokyo dispatches. Are the Japs sure the hump-spring isn't broken?

Add world's worst puns: Congress passed every kind of tax except a syntax.

BRISTOL EYEING SIXTH STRAIGHT AGAINST BURLINGTON IN RENEWAL OF TRADITIONAL RIVALRY HERE TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Great Line Battle Anticipated Between Two Elevens—Bristol is Favored to Avenge Last Year's Beating With Star Backs Set—Paul Ruby Returns to Action — Brown is Burlington Star.

Ken Herrmann and "Flash" Potena

"KEN" HERRMANN

"FLASH" POTENA

These two Bristol high school football players have been making things "hot" for all Bristol high school opponents this year. Herrmann is the quiet, steady type who doesn't say much but is always in there plugging away. "Flash" Potena earns his nickname by his vicious charging and tackling. "With a few boys like this up on the forward wall, a coach's worries are greatly lessened," states Coach Clarence Bartholomew. "Too often, backfield men are praised and the linemen forgotten. The linemen are the ones who have to open up the holes to give the backs a chance to get going. Anyone who has watched the 'Bunnies' this year must admit that the line, end to end, has been doing a good job, both offensively and defensively, and the backs have taken advantage of it."

(By Jack Gill)

Swinging to and fro, the grueling pendulum, singing its yearly football tale, plays no favorites, knows no bounds in fickleness and smiles only upon those who show marked ability. Bristol, playing host to an aroused Burlington ensemble, well realizes this fact.

For tomorrow afternoon on the Bristol field in a renewal of one of the oldest and most traditional grid rivalries in district ranks, the rampaging Bunnies, joyfully prancing the victorious "bunny hop," face a downtrodden Burlington high school eleven. And make no mistake, sparks are set to sprinkle in all directions.

Last year Bristol was down and couldn't win a ball game at any price. On the other hand, Burlington was flourishing in success and leading South Jersey in schoolboy play. As the two met in a blistering and hard-charging battle, the locals hit a peak, and although beaten by a 29 to 6 not, hung around the ball park to plague the Blue Devils immensely.

Gala pep rallies and spirited demonstrations have been taking place on both sides of the river. Intense rivalry marks the annual meeting between these two towns that are separated by a narrow slit of swift-flowing water. Bristol participated in a loud and boisterous session at the Bristol Theatre this afternoon in which the coaches, students and players themselves took part.

Bristol, on record, is favored to take the measure of Coach Al Rundle's charges. Lacking the great Walt Markula, dexterous and elusive high-scoring back of last year, Burlington's offense has been lost. The minions of Coach Clarence Bartholomew, however, are rolling at a clip that has been unstopable of late.

The Cardinal and Grey combine, seeking its sixth straight verdict Saturday, is up to its hilt in happiness. Squad morale is at a bursting point. The only flaw about this is the fact that it may twist into over-confidence and result in an explosion heard round the town come nightfall Saturday.

After dropping a close 13 to 6 game to Trenton Catholic in the season's opener, Bristol has beaten Bensalem, 25-0; Langhorne, 23-0; P. S. D., 29-6; Bordentown, 12-6; and Conshohocken, 20-0. Great running by backs with the "know how" operating behind a stern line has been instrumental in all of these victories.

Burlington has been just as sour as Bristol has been successful. Still searching for a triumph, the Blue Devils lost to Gloucester, 7-6; Moorestown, 13-6, and Riverside, 30-6. They tied Morrisville, 7-7, and battled strong Palmyra to a scoreless stalemate.

Taking Burlington's record into consideration, local coaches fear that they may be super-charged. In other words, tired of being shoved around the lot, Burlington comes to town Saturday victory hungry. And Bristol, being knee deep in success, might be caught off-guard. Outside of Monday's 30 to 6 rout administered by unbeaten Riverside, Group 2 leaders in New Jersey, Burlington hasn't looked vastly unimpressive.

Coach Bartholomew took his entire varsity to Burlington Monday afternoon to witness the Riverside rout. And the bridge fare may have been well spent. "We saw a lot," remarked Bartholomew. "Of course, Riverside made them look pretty bad, but Burlington will have a tremendous weight advantage and will offer us perhaps the stiffest opposition we have yet faced."

The Burs build their attack mainly around elongated Dan Brown, brilliant colored end. Using Frank Horner as a passer, Burlington shoots aerials galore to the speedy wingman. It was Brown who robbed Morrisville of a 7-0 victory by going a long way with a pass that enabled his team to tie the local champs, 7-7. Riverside, however, put an end to Brown's pass snatching by playing two men on him. But it aptly shows just how good the man is. He must be respected.

Bristol is red hot in backfield play. Led by hard running, hard charging and hard playing Armand Capriotti, the Cards should avenge last year's setback. The main task will be for the line to shake such aces as Scancelli, Di Angelo, Rosser, Melidio and Galzerano loose against the biggest forward wall they have yet faced.

This is where the game will undoubtedly be clinched. Up front, Bristol has been heroic. Potena, Ciarella, Massi, Herman and Vandegrift have scintillated. Saturday it will be their rush against Burlington's charge, always a powerful part of Rundle's game.

Most of Bristol's present varsity felt the sting of last year's scrap. A bruising battle then. Saturday's scrap will be just as intensely waged. Keith Rosser, a bit overshadowed by some of Bristol's current stars, highlighted the 1940 game by twisting his way past mid-field on a thrilling punt return to give Bristol its only tally late in the fray.

Big Paul Ruby, battering fullback, returns to active duty following a serious shoulder injury suffered in the opening game against Trenton Catholic. Although Bartholomew will not start the likeable all-round ace, he intimated that Ruby will see action for the second time this campaign. Skipper Reed, scrappy little colored end, also re-enters active play after being out a week. Reed filled in for Capriotti after the latter was transformed into a back-field man, and has been playing aggressive ball all year.

Burlington will start Brown and Bowker at the ends, East and D. Ross at tackle, Dawson and Gill at guard and D'Ascendis at center. The pivot man arches the line and was a nuisance to Bristol last fall. Horner, V. Ross, Simkunas and Adams compose the Blue Devils' backfield.

Officials at the school are preparing to handle the largest crowd of the season. It is the next to last home game of the year, with Bridgeport the only remaining rival to be met on the Wilson Avenue lot. The Morrisville game will be played at Morrisville.

Look into the Last Mile... FIRST

MAYBE it's a little hard to picture this trim Buick as it will look on that unknown day when you come to turn it in.

There may be scars in its fenders, and use-stains on its upholstery—but the thing that matters is it'll still be going great guns.

You can count on that husky valve-in-head straight-eight to be ticking off the miles with the satisfying extra efficiency it now boasts.

You can rely on Compound Carburetion† to hold your gas-costs down, squeezing every last power-packed mile out of the fuel you burn.

There won't be any loss of easy comfort in those all-coil springs, or any need for care to keep them gentle.

As for the drive—well, there's just nothing to go wrong with a simple steel shaft encased in a stout torque tube!

†Available at slight extra cost on Buick SPECIAL models, standard on all other Series.

Tires? You may be through the second or third set before you're finished with any car you buy now—but those Buick broad-rim wheels will see to it you get the top mileage each can give.

As for such things as connecting rods and bearings—Buick rods are extra strong, while tests show that our oil-cushioned bearings last twice as long as others under the same load and service.

So go right ahead! Buy this Buick on its last mile instead of its first. That's the smart way to buy these times.

Of this you can be sure: No other car's going to offer greater surety of

LEMON SMOTHERED CHOPS

2 pounds pork or lamb chops, cut thick

Put in a large covered skillet or chicken fryer. Cover top of meat closely with:

2 unpeeled lemons, sliced
1 large sweet onion, cut in rings
1 green pepper, cut in rings
1 teaspoon salt

Pour over all:

2 cups tomato juice

Dot with flakes of fat cut from meat or butter. Cover and cook on top of stove 1½ hours or until done. Lift onto a hot platter, being careful to keep lemon, onion and pepper slices in place. The meat cooked this way acquires a chicken texture and color, while the lemon, onion, pepper and tomato make a delicious sauce accompaniment. (Serves 6-8.)

Get The Family Off To a Good Start With A Tempting Breakfast

If you want to start the family off to a happy day, make the first meal a tempting one. There's really no excuse for hum-drum, slap-dash breakfasts. Variety in fruit and eggs and breads is just as easy as monotony, and a good cup of coffee is just as easy to make as a poor one.

Whether you use drip coffee equipment, a percolator or a plain coffee pot, remember that the secret of coffee success is to keep the apparatus scrupulously clean, to measure the quantity of coffee and water exactly and to time the brewing to the second. You can pour second cups generously if you use decaffeinated coffee, for no body needs to count cups when this brew is served. Remember that decaffeinated coffee need slightly longer brewing—when made by pot or percolator—to bring out its full flavor.

You can add welcome variety to breakfast if you serve an amulet thickened with quick-cooking tapioca.

Drip Coffee

Use one well-rounded tablespoon drip grind decaffeinated coffee for each cup (one-half pint) of boiling water. Preheat drip coffee pot. Put coffee in upper compartment of pot. Pour fresh boiling water over it. Cover and let stand in warm place until all water has dripped through once. Remove upper compartment and cover pot. Serve.

Fluffy Omelet

2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup milk, scalded
1 tablespoon butter
4 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored
4 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Add quick-cooking tapioca, salt, and pepper to milk and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear and mixture thickened, stirring frequently. Add butter. Cool. Combine with egg yolks, stirring constantly. Fold in egg whites. Pour into hot, buttered, 9-inch frying pan. Cook over low flame, 3 minutes. Then bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Omelet is sufficiently cooked when a knife inserted comes out clean. Cut across at right angles to handle of pan, being careful not to cut all the way through. Fold carefully from handle to opposite side and serve on hot platter. Serves 6.

Women of Doylestown V. I. A.
Hear of "Trends in Crime"

DOYLESTOWN, Nov. 7 — With women of the Village Improvement Association composing the audience, Albert Frazier, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Prison League, at a meeting here on Tuesday spoke on the subject "Trends in Crime and Its Treatment."

Mr. Frazier, who was presented by Mrs. William M. Mercer, chairman of the program, said, with some increase at the present (and notably among the juveniles), there are at all times slight variations, but his personal feeling was that the present younger generation is no worse than former ones, that the world is not going to the dogs and that the present slight increase is not a serious tendency.

"In terms of the individual, crime expresses itself as an effort to acquire a certain goal. If blocked in getting what he wants, he may commit crime. In our most complex life, it is quite difficult for some to accept a pattern of behavior; therefore," explained Mr. Frazier, "it is a normal thing to commit crime and crime may never be entirely obliterated."

The club voted to extend the time until April 1st for writing the essays in a contest for which there will be awards. Mrs. H. LeRoy Kister, chairman, reminded that the subject is "What Does Our Town Need?" to be covered in 500 words.

Two water colors were on exhibit at the meeting. Mrs. John W. Sigafos, chairman of the fine arts committee, stated the artist was Paul Domville, Philadelphia muralist and instructor in the School of Fine Arts, University of Pennsylvania. Moore Institute and Philadelphia School of Design.

Mrs. Irvin M. James reported three new members, including Mrs. Frank W. Ely and Mrs. William Bowman, of Doylestown, and Mrs. Fiske, of Danboro.

Mrs. Calvin S. Boyer spoke of the success attained by the "movie" benefit whereby the Emergency Hospital acquired 747 cans of fruit and vegetables besides baskets of fruit. Mrs. Boyer suggested each member take a glass of jelly to the December meeting and give that to the hospital also.

Today's Quiet Moment

(By the Rev. James R. Galley)

Pastor, Bristol Presbyterian Church

We thank Thee, O Father, for the light of the sun, which brings warmth, joy, and light into the lives of men, and directs us on our journey through life. We thank Thee, too, for the spiritual Light of the World, which is Jesus Christ Thy Son. Grant, O God, that He might shine into the dark recesses of our hearts and cause the darkness to flee, that we might behold Thy countenance and experience Thy love. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRAND THEATRE

A girl who could capture an arsenal, seize government trains, repeatedly rout United States troops—and still look beautiful and find time for love, is worthy of anyone's interest.

Such a girl was "Belle Starr," the famous bandit queen of the Ozarks, beautiful co-ed, Warren Ashe, as a dog-time sports promoter, Oscar night in the Technicolor production guerilla leader who loved and married Belle, and Gene Tierney as the "petti-coat terror" herself. Both are perfect-entertainment, co-features Randolph Scott as Sam Starr, the dashing forerunner.

SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

When one of Philadelphia's most reliable shops celebrates its Anniversary, it is grand buying news indeed for canny shoppers. Get rolling along!

Here indeed is a chance to buy a nicer frock on a very limited budget, for the Snellenburg Anniversary Days are now featuring frocks usually selling up to $13.95 priced at a mere $9! These extra value dresses will be found in all three 2nd fl. dress departments—for junior misses, misses and women. Sizes run from 9 to 15, 10 to 20, 16 1/2 to 24 1/2, 38 to 44. Included are all the desired materials and styles, from tailored to very dressy indeed, in bright wools, rayons, velveteens, etc. Splendid chance!

A rug does for a room what the right winter coat does for oneself. No use waiting until next year when, even though present prices are soaring, Snellenburgs now offer their patrons thick pile Royal Wiltons at a saving! For such a rug, valued at $62.50, the Snellenburg Anniversary price is $48. This special offering is a 9x12 size and runs the gamut of warm shades from pale rose to rich wine, and there are also tawny gold backgrounds, etc. Incredible pricing! 4th fl.

Got a roaster for that turkey? Read here about the best buy you ever saw. Another Anniversary Days special at Snellenburgs is priced at $1.59 instead of $1.98. Even the latter price is amazingly low. The roaster is of blue porcelain enamel, and fitted with a detachable rack designed to make lifting, turning, and serving no trick at all. Covered and self-basting of course. The rack, by the way, has "pick-up" sides. Roaster will hold a 15 lb. to 18 lb. turkey. Housewares Dept., 3rd fl.

Just the kind of sofas interior decorators insist upon—wouldn't you like to have one? And made with the famous Snellenburg sagless construction features, too. I can hardly believe the Anniversary price on these—$69. Just shop about for comparative prices to see what I mean. There are English Chippendales, Queen Annes, Tuxedos, etc. Choose your fabrics from handsome rayon and cotton damasks and tapestries, all suitable to the different periods. These sofas are sold on the deferred payment plan, too. Do see them—do! Furniture Dept., 5th fl.

It's sweater time! And, when you can buy $2.98 to $3.98 sweaters for only $2, it pays to buy at least two or three. Not to speak of soaring prices! These sweaters are not only timely for autumn wear but for putting to one side for Christmas gifts. There are short and long sleeved models, and you'll find pullovers and cardigans. You'll like the interesting weaves and fall hard for the lovely colorings. Sizes 34 to 40. Some cardigans up to 44. Find all of them in Snellenburg's 2nd fl. Sportswear Shop.

burg's Anniversary generosity helps us delightfully, be we juniors, misses or women. Manufacturers co-operated, too, because of the delayed cold weather. This means, if you please, $45 to $79.95 coats for the lowly sum of—guess—$39.88. Positively, it's akin to philanthropy! All kinds of materials, and rich trimmings of many furs, including dyed blue fox to Persian, Junior, Misses' and Women's Departments, 2nd fl.

What a clearance of shoes! A Snellenburg Anniversary Days celebration is that of reducing over a thousand pairs of shoes to $3.33. Makes as follows: Dainty Debs, $3.95; Scotties, $5; Modern Youths, $6.75. Splendid variety in colors and materials and practically all patterns. An Anniversary occasion in Snellenburg's Shoe Dept., 1st fl. Have you seen the Department since it was so beautifully done over?

Splendid all wool blankets are to be had during Snellenburg Anniversary Days, several being featured at generously reduced prices. Ask for the 72x84 number of the kind that fairly coaxes one to sleep, at the price of $6.29. These $6.29 blankets are of $7.95 value. You will appreciate the bindings, matching celanese. These nice coverings are to be had in rose, blue, green, winter rose, peach, cedar. Good for home or Christmas gifts! Blanket Dept., 2nd fl.

And now for some real shopping—for much, much more than your money's worth! Faithfully, FAITH.

FALLS ALUMNI IS UNDISMAYED BY DEFEAT LAST WEEK

Coach Doheny Ready To Send Team Against Lambert-ville

OUT TO WIN THE GAME

Falcons Feel That They Are
On the Rebound and Can Win

Undismayed at the defeat his team suffered at the hands of South Langhorne, Coach "Jimmy" Doheny will send his Falls Alumni eleven against the Lambertville Tornadoes, Sunday afternoon, at Island field, Morrisville.

Doheny feels that his club outplayed the Langhorne club last week but it wasn't in the book for his boys to check in with the victory. The extra point was the margin of victory as the Langhorne team won 7-6.

Furthermore, it was one of the few times this season that Al Doster missed the try for the extra point, which would have tied the score. Doster had an average of something like eight out of ten conversions before missing last week.

But the Falcons feel as if they are on the rebound and can trim the Jersey team. The Broad Street Park team held the Lambertville club to a scoreless deadlock and Falls triumphed the Park eleven and so it records mean anything, Falls should beat Lambertville.

The Tornadoes were undefeated until stopped by Doylestown last week. This was also a close one, Doylestown winning 7-6. In order to stop the Tornadoes, the Falls boys must bottle Al Masterson, fleet quarterback of the Lambertville team, and Joie Choppie, hard-hitting halfback.

To date, Falls has won four games, lost one, and tied one. The Trenton Eagles was the deadlocking team, while victories were scored over West Conshohocken, Broad Street Park, Bordentown, and North Phillips.

The Fallsington lineup is intact with no casualties suffered in the Langhorne tilt. The starting Falls backfield will be composed of Fikner, Doster, Lovett, and Washinski; while in the line will be Jadlocki, Reed, L. Mansmann, Chewing, J. Mansmann, Bartie, and Appenzeller.

Kickoff will take place at 2:30 o'clock.
